News Report

Killed At The Dardanelles

The sad news was received on Thursday by Captain Henry and Mrs. Chrimes of Kellock Cottage, Cottage Hones, Seabank Road that their son, Sergt. George E. Chrimes, of the 6th Service Battalion Regiment, was killed in action on August 9th at the Dardanelles.

Shortly after the outbreak of war, Sergeant Chrimes, whose business was in Manchester, joined the 6th Border Regiment as a private, being promoted shortly afterwards to the rank of Sergeant. He left England with the regiment in June last, and could therefore only have been at the Dardanelles a month. Sergeant Chrimes will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends with whom he was extremely popular.
