Seacombe Youth

Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Amery, of 1, Mersey Terrace, Seacombe, in the sad loss of their son Reginald, a private in the 21st Ling's Liverpool Regiment, who died on Monday from the effects of scarlet fever. The deceased who had had but a short military career, was only 19 years of age, and during the time he had been in training he had had to be treated at the hospital for several weeks. As a civilian he followed the occupation of a shipping clerk, and was employed in the Elder Dempster Line. He joined the "Pals" some six months ago, and was much liked by the fellow members of his company. He had four brothers in the Army who have seen active service in France and the Dardanelles, and were present at the funeral to pay a last homage to their dead brother. Private Reginald Amery enjoyed considerable popularity among a good circle of friends, who will deeply sympathise with the near relatives in the great loss they have sustained.
