News Report

Church Sidesman Killed

Corpl. George Albert Bellis, of the King's Liverpool Regt., was killed in action on Sept. 20. Twenty seven years of age, he was educated at St. Paul's School, Seacombe, attended the parish church until he went to reside in Poulton, was a sidesman at St. Luke's Church up to the time of joining the colours two years ago, and had been in France since last February. He was a member of St. Luke's Football Club and gymnasium, and formerly employed at Messrs. Fairrie and Co., sugar refinery, Liverpool.

2nd Lieut. F. Kineston writes:-

"It is my painful duty to inform you that your son, Corpl. G.A. Bellis, was killed in action on Sept. 20. It may be of some consolation to you to know that your son was held in the very highest esteem by all his officers, N.C.O's, and men of his regiment. All join me in expressions of the deepest sympathy.”

Much sympathy will be felt for his widowed mother, Mrs. Bellis, of 9, Broughton Road, and his fiancée, Miss Ada Williams, 43 Oxton Road, Poulton.
