News Report

Died of Wounds

The parents of Private Arthur Birkby, 94, Rappart Road, Seacombe, have received a letter from the chaplain of the Warwickshire Regiment stating that their son has died of wounds in France. He was wounded seriously – in three places – in the abdomen, right thigh, and left thigh. He succumbed in the Casualty Clearing System. Pr. Birkby, who was 20 years of age, joined the Cheshires, and was afterwards transferred.
