News Report

Egremont Lieut. Killed

The sad intelligence has been received by Mr. H.W. Blake, 13, Rudgrave Square, Egremont, that his second son, 2nd Lieut. Reginald H. Blake, K.L.R., was killed in action on June 1. He joined the colours on July 15, 1915, and had been nearly two years in France. He was 26 years of age, and was educated at the Wesleyan School, Brighton Street, under the late Mr. James Wright, and was in the employ of the Tedcastle Line, Liverpool. He was an old choir boy of St. Hilary's Church, Wallasey, and played football for the Harrowby club. His younger brother, Pte. E.H. Blake (R.W.F) was wounded in Egypt last November. Many letters of sympathy from fellow officers have been received.
