News Report

New Brighton Territorial Killed

Another New Brighton member of the 4th Cheshire Regiment, Private Edward Carroll, of 9, The Avenue, Egerton Street, has been reported killed in action at the Dardanelles.

He was eighteen years of age, and received his education at St. Mary's Highfield School, Liverpool. Joining the Territorials at the outbreak of war, he was attached to B Company of the 4th Cheshires, and was drafted to the Dardanelles during the latter part of July. In all his letters he had expressed himself as well satisfied.
