Resident's Patriotic Record

Mrs. Clingan, of 50 Bell Road, Seacombe, who has thirty-six close relations with the colours, has received a letter from the matron of a hospital in France stating that her son, Lance-Corpl. Albert Clinga, Maclean Kilties of America (Sir Sam's Own), Canadian Forces, died from wounds on the 11th September. The funeral took place with military honours at Boulogne. Educated at St. Margaret's School, Princes Park, Liverpool, the deceased tried to join the Liverpool City Police, in which his father was an inspector, and who was well know on both sides of the water, but failed as medically unfit. He afterwards went to America, and was one of the first to enlist.

His eldest brother, Lieut. G.P. Clingan, who is famed locally as a sprinter of the Sefton and Prembroke Harriers, enlisted early in August, 1914, and is now in Ireland with the D.L.O. Yeomanry. In peace times he assisted the Valkyrie Football Club.

Another brother Signaller Stanley Stanley Clingan, of the "Pals," is in hospital in Italy with malarial fever. He took part in the Salonika operations, and in civil life was in the employ of the West Derby Board of Guardian, Belmont Road, Liverpool.
