News Report Reported Killed In our issue of October 19th, we reported that Pte. Eric Culverwell was wounded and had been missing since September 3rd, but no definite particulars were to hand. Official news has now been received that he was killed in action on that date. The brave soldier, who was only 20 years of age, was educated at Manor Road Council School, and was formerly with his father in business. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Culverwell, 31, King Street, Egremont.
