Only Just Married

Mrs. E. Fishwick, of 19, Clarence Road, Seacombe, has received the sad intelligence that her brother, Private A. Hurrell, of the King's Liverpool Regiment, has been killed in action in the great "push" on July 30th.

Private Hurrell was well-known in Seacombe, as he lived here all his life, and had attended St. Paul's and Riverside Council Schools. He was 27 years of age, and had married just before going away, residing with his wife in Birkenhead. He had been employed as a barman in Messrs. Threlfall's Brewery Company, and latterly had been in a well-known hostelry in London Road. Liverpool.

General regret will be felt at the death of this promising young man, and the sympathy of all his many friends will be tendered to his young widow and other relatives.
