News Report

Liscard Lieutenant Dies From Wounds

We regret to record the death of 2nd Lieut. Oswald (Ossie) S.W. Mahon, of the king's Liverpool Regt., which occurred on April 14, at the General Military Hospital, Le Pleport, France, from gunshot wounds received in action in the big push on Easter Monday. He was only 19 years age, and received his commission on his eighteenth birthday. The brave young soldier, who was educated at the Liverpool College, completed his studies at Councillor Wrigley's Liscard High School, was held in great esteem as one of the most popular boys of the 1st New Brighton Territorial Cadet Corps. He was over four years in the Corps, and previous to joining the Forces had been Lieutenant and Adjutant for twelve months. He was the youngest son of Mr and Mrs James J. Mahon. "Brentwood," Seabank Road, Wallasey.

His elder brother, Captain Mahon, was killed in action last September.
