News Report

"Duty Well Done"

Mr and Mrs Mather, of 7, Poplar Terrace, Sandfield Road, Liscard, have received the sad intimation that their eldest son, Pte. Thomas S. Mather, Royal Welsh Fusiliers, was killed in action on August 27. Only 18 years of age, he was educated at Magazine Lane School. Another brother is serving with the colours. Carrying troops.

Capt. R.T. Wynne Edwards writes:- "Dear Mrs. Mather, - It is with great sorrow that I write to offer you the deepest sympathy of the company and myself in your great loss. Your son was killed on August 27 in an advance made by the battalion in part of the great battle which is still going on. He had done his duty well. Once more offering you our deepest sympathy."
