News Report

Council Clerk Killed

On Wednesday the War Office conveyed to Miss Gertie Moses, Perch Rock Hotel, Grosvenor Road, New Brighton, the sad intelligence that her brother, Sergeant F. Moses, of the 17th Liverpool Regiment, had been killed in action. An expression of the sympathy of the King and Queen and the Army Council was also enclosed. The deceased soldier had been in the service of the Wallasey Corporation between seven and eight years, having been engaged as a drawing clerk in the Borough Engineer and Surveyor's Department and his loss will be deeply regretted by all his late colleagues. At Thursday's meeting of the Town Council a vote of condolence with the relatives was sympathetically passed.
