News Report

Five Brothers Serving

One Killed, Two Wounded

Mr and Mrs James Newall, of 26, Lonsborough Road, have received information that their second and youngest sons, Corporal Frank Newall and Private Reginald V. Newall, both of the King's Liverpool Regiment, have been wounded. Corporal Newall was wounded in the left ear, shoulder and back, by a bursting shell, while his brother, Private Reginald Newall, was wounded in the knee by shrapnel. And is now at the convalescent home, Rock Ferry, going on well. The third son, Lance Corporal Harold Newall, was reported killed early in July and appeared in the "News" some weeks ago. The eldest and fourth sons of Mr and Mrs Newall are serving with the Forces.
