News Report

Egremont Licensee's Loss

We regret to announce the death of Private Harry Phipps, K.L.R., who died from wounds received in action on Oct. 24, at the Casualty Clearing Station, France. He enlisted in September, 1914, and had been two years in France. In his 22nd year, he was educated at Bootle Secondary School, and was a keen athlete, and won several prizes for football and running. He was formerly in the marine department of Messrs. Lamport and Holt, Liverpool. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Phipps, of the Great Britain Hotel, King Street, Egremont. Two other sons are serving with the colours.

Capt. and Adj. R.W. Salisbury writes:- "I greatly regret to have to inform you of the death of your son, Private H. Phipps, in hospital, on the 24th October. He was unfortunately wounded early in the morning of the same day by a shell whilst in the performance of his duties. We all of us feel the loss of one of our best men. For a long time he had been employed at Battalion headquarters, and besides being extremely useful at his work, he was always a cheerful and brave soldier. Please accept the sympathy of both the officers and men of his Battalion in your bereavement.
