Three From One Home

Mr. and Mrs W.M. Schofield, who reside at 7, Pendennis Road, Central Park, have had the misfortune to lose one son and two nephews in the war - their eldest son, Clifford Schofield, Liverpool Scottish, fell in action in the charge of his regiment at Hooge, 16th June, 1915, and they have now received intimation that their nephew, Herbert Stanley Wild has died of wounds received in action, and is interred at Boulogne, France; and also that their nephew, Company Bombing Arthur Hardy Platt, was killed in action 3rd July. Both were in the 11th Cheshire Regiment and resident at 7, Pendennis Road. They were both in the service of the White Star Line. Asking for information, a comrade of Sergeant Platt's writes: "No doubt it is some consolation to you to know he died leading his platoon in the charge; he was a good soldier and well liked by everyone he came in contact with. He went into the charge with his head bandaged, but was hit again and died of his wounds."

The two boys were cousins. They enlisted on the same day at Wallasey in the same regiment, and sacrificed their lives on the same day for the country. Sergeant Platt was engaged to Miss Dolly Lowe, Glenalmond Road, Egremont, and sympathy is extended to her and her parents.
