Chronicle News

Liscardian Killed

The name of the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sharp, of 96, Rullerton Road, appeared in the list of casualties on Tuesday among the killed. This is Private F. Sharp, of the 3rd Battalion of the Australian contingent with the Mediterranean Expeditionary Force. He was educated at the Liverpool Institute, and left the city for Australia a little over 5 years ago. On the outbreak of war he joined the 3rd Battalion of the Australian contingent, which landed in Egypt towards the end of last year, subsequently proceeding to the Dardanelles. He was 23 years of age, and much sympathy will be extended to his parents on the loss of a promising son.
