News Report Bank Clerk Killed Another old Wallasey Grammar School boy has to be added to the list of heroes. Lance-Corporal George William Thomas, of the Liverpool Pals, who was attached to a machine-gun section, was killed instantaneously, being struck in the shell with a shell. He was for nineteen years with the Bank of Liverpool, an enthusiastic golfer and lawn tennis player. He was secretary if the Manor Club. Several years ago he was attached to the Duke of Lancaster's Yeomanry. He was the only son of Mrs Thomas, Bereford Road, Wallasey.
