Chronicle News Warren Drive Bereavement Mr and Mrs J.H. Woods, of the Croft, Warren Drive, New Brighton, have received notification of the death of the death of their second son, Private Albert Rothwell Woods, Liverpool "Pals," who was killed in action on July 1st; and, according to the informant, an officer of the battalion, death came instantaneously. Private Woods, who was only eighteen years of age, had been in the Army some fifteen months, and prior to enlistment was an employee of Messrs. Ralli Brothers, Liverpool. An ardent motor-cyclist and a keen sportsman. He was formerly a playing member if the Aughton Hockey Club. Singularly enough, deceased's eldest brother, W.F. Woods, was slightly wounded in the shoulder on the same day, and is at present lying in Alder Hey Hospital, West Derby. Please to relate, however, the wounded soldier is making satisfactory progress towards recovery.
