News Report

Killed The First Week Out

Mr and Mrs Arthur Bain, of 3 Lindeth Avenue, Wallasey, have been officially informed of the death of their son, Pte. Gordon Bain, who was killed in action on the 2nd September. He joined up with the South Lancashire Regt., and was transferred to the Cheshire Regt., and had only been a week in France. He was educated at Riversdale Council School, and previous to enlistment was assistant steward on one of the Liverpool liners. He was closely associated with the Y.M.C.A. during his period of training. He attended St. Thomas' Church. Liscard, and was an old boy chorister. He was only 18 years of age.
