News Report

A Braver Man Never Breathed

Mrs. Phillips, the wife of the late Inspector Phillips, of the Wallasey Police Force, whose death at the front we reported last week, has received a letter from Captain E.C. Orford, expressing his sympathy. "Not only," he said "was he invaluable to me as quartermaster-sergeant, but I had a great affection for him, having been with his company from November, 1914. A cooler, braver man never breathed. He WAS a man.
